SYNOPSIS

IMMEDIATE FAMILY tracks the rise and collaborations of a group of legendary session musicians Danny Kortchmar, Leland Sklar, Russ Kunkel, and Waddy Wachtel through the 1970s and onward, chronicling their illustrious partnerships and their formidable record of hit-making. Directed by Denny Tedesco, whose documentary The Wrecking Crew followed the first wave of studio musicians in the 60s, the film reveals the machinery behind the booming era of the singer-songwriter, when the talents of these four musicians were in furious demand. The foundations of their enduring friendship, formed on the road and in studios, is recalled with dynamite clarity — reminisced with fondness through intimate interviews with the guys themselves, as well as the memories of some of rock's most iconic voices including Carole King, James Taylor, Linda Ronstadt, Keith Richards, Don Henley, Stevie Nicks, David Crosby, Jackson Browne, Lyle Lovett, Phil Collins, and more. IMMEDIATE FAMILY is a backstage tour spanning multiple eras of musical history.

DIRECTOR'S STATEMENT – DENNY TEDESCO

In 1996 I started my first documentary, "The Wrecking Crew," telling the stories of the music industry's session players in the 1960s in Los Angeles. It was a personal journey for me because one of those musicians, guitarist Tommy Tedesco, was my father who was passing away at the time when we started filming. I was hesitant to make a follow up film, but when approached with the opportunity to tell the stories of the next wave of iconic session musicians, I didn't think twice.

"Immediate Family," which features bassist Leland Sklar, drummer Russ Kunkel, and guitarists Waddy Wachtel, Steve Postel and Danny "Kootch" Kortchmar - session musicians at the genesis of the 'Singer-Songwriter Era' in the 1970s - is named after the band the iconic supergroup formed after playing together for decades. Collaborating and touring for over 50 years, these musicians really did become a family. Now, in their mid 70s, with The Immediate Family band, the group is still playing together, recording, and loving it like they were in their 20s.

We were overwhelmed with the support from the artists when it came to setting up all of the interviews. Within five days of taking the project on, we had Carole King, James Taylor, Linda Ronstadt, Jackson Browne, Phil Collins, Don Henley, Stevie Nicks and David Crosby ready to speak to the session players' impact.

Each one of these legends always felt the same way as the band. They were all family on a musical journey that continues today.

ABOUT THE DIRECTOR

Denny Tedesco grew up in Los Angeles. He started as a set decorator on feature films such as "Eating Raoul" and then went on to working on films, commercials and music videos during the MTV Years as a grip.

In 1984-1990, Denny began to travel the world as a lighting technician and location producer for IMAX films. From the shark-infested waters of Australia to the plains of Africa, he has filmed under the most challenging conditions. He was sent as a location producer to cover the eruption of Mt. Pinatubo as well as the catastrophic earthquake of Kobe, Japan.

During the 1990s and 2000s, Denny worked as a freelance producer and director and conducted interviews for A&E, TV-Land, and was a producer on Comedy Central's Pulp Comics. Most notably in 2000, he produced the Academy Awards "opening" starring Billy Crystal and also the award-winning music video for Elton John's song, "I Want Love" starring Robert Downey Jr.

In 1996, Denny set out on the labor of love of all loves. His father, famed session guitarist Tommy Tedesco, was diagnosed with terminal cancer. With a year left in his father's life, Denny quickly started filming his father and his cohorts and other musicians fondly known as the Wrecking Crew.

The making of the film became a story in itself. Featured on Entertainment Tonight, Marc Maron's WTF Podcast, NPR, CBS Morning News, Wall Street Journal, Rolling Stone, and other media outlets around the world. Tedesco toiled for years raising enough money to finally pay off the 110 songs that needed to tell the story. His unique marketing ideas brought the movie to the success it achieved.

His latest producing job is currently on the 2nd season of a comedy series called, Hanging with Doctor Z. It features comedian Dana Gould who plays Dr. Z, (character from Planet of the Apes). Dr. Z interviews other comedians; Dave Foley, Bobcat Goldthwait, Patton Oswalt, Steven Webber, Will Forte, Penn Jillett, Maria Bamford, Al Yankovic, Paget Brewster, Jeff Garlin, Hank Azaria and more.

Denny has just finished his next documentary which follows up on the Wrecking Crew called Immediate family. When the Wrecking Crew slowed down in the early 60s the studio scene changed and the era of the Singer Songwriters took over, a new group of guys came in. The film features Leland Sklar, Russ Kunkle, Waddy Wachtel and Danny Kortchmar. For his latest project, he interviewed, Carole King, Jackson Browne, James Taylor, Linda Ronstadt, Neil Young, Don Henley, David Crosby, Keith Richards, Phil Collins, Lyle Lovett, Stevie Nicks and many more.

He is now in Pre-Production of his next documentary, "The Salad Oil Swindle," one of the greatest financial crises in American History. It stars Ron Insana, Warren Buffett and other financial legends of Wall Street.

ABOUT THE IMMEDIATE FAMILY BAND

The Immediate Family (the modern iteration of a legendary studio ensemble known as "The Section") is a rock and roll band composed of four of the most recorded, respected and sought-after players in modern music: Danny Kortchmar (guitar and vocals), Waddy Wachtel (guitar and vocals), Leland Sklar (bass), Russ Kunkel (drums) and the addition of prominent touring, session guitarist and songwriter Steve Postell (guitar and vocals). Frequent collaborators both in the studio and on-stage, their work can be heard on albums from Jackson Browne, James Taylor, Linda Ronstadt, Stevie Nicks, Keith Richards, Warren Zevon, Graham Nash, Neil Young, David Crosby and many, many, many more. Kortchmar, Sklar and Kunkel have worked together since the early 70s and made up three-quarters of The Section, best known for both their studio and live work in support of some of the top selling singer/songwriters and solo singers in the history of music, as well as their own acclaimed instrumental albums. (By mid 70s, they were later joined by Wachtel). Collectively, these musicians helped define the sound of a generation.

Danny Kortchmar's credits as guitarist, producer, songwriter, and session musician include work with James Taylor, Don Henley, Carole King, Linda Ronstadt, Jackson Browne and Billy Joel, among many others. As a songwriter, Kortchmar has both written alone or collaborated with numerous artists, penning indelible tracks such as Don Henley's "Dirty Laundry," "All She Wants to Do Is Dance," and "New York Minute," as well as Jackson Browne's "Somebody's Baby" and "Shaky Town," to name a few.

Legendary guitarist, producer and songwriter Waddy Wachtel has worked with many of the same artists as Kortchmar, as well as artists like the Rolling Stones, Keith Richards, Stevie Nicks, Randy Newman, Bryan Ferry and the late Warren Zevon, with whom he co-wrote and produced a number of hit songs including "Werewolves of London," which The Immediate Family has included in their set list. Wachtel's production work includes Keith Richards, Bryan Ferry, George Thorogood and The Church, and he has composed numerous scores for feature films.

Leland Sklar has performed in the studio and on tour with Phil Collins, James Taylor, Toto and Billy Cobham, to name a few. Actually, Sklar has the most credits of any of the members of The Immediate Family, having worked on over 2,600 albums.

Russ Kunkel's credits include Jackson Browne, James Taylor, Linda Ronstadt, Bob Dylan, Stevie Nicks, Lyle Lovett and dozens more. He has created and co-produced film scores for Mike Nichols' Heartburn, Joyce Chopra's Smooth Talk and New World Films' Certain Fury. Production work includes Clannad, Jimmy Buffett, The Derek Trucks Band, Dan Fogelberg, Aaron Neville and others.

Steve Postell is a seasoned touring and session player who has worked with David Crosby, Jennifer Warnes, Michael McDonald, John Oates, Robben Ford and many others. He recorded and mixed the final 3 performances of Ravi Shankar, and has scored films including "Dying To Know" about Timothy Leary & Ram Dass and narrated by Robert Redford. He has released several solo records, including the critically acclaimed "Time Still Knockin'" on Immergent Records.

CAST QUOTES

"This film is a window into the lives of my musical brothers, whose gold standard is to make sure that every song they play on comes out even better than the songwriter imagined. Now they're doing that for their own songs, and this film tells their story beautifully."

- Carole King

"A wonderful and fascinating encomium to the unsung heroes of the music of the 70s and so much more. I was thrilled to watch my favourite musicians (and dearest friends) celebrated for their musical brilliance, their prodigious influence and creativity - and for how much fun we all had (and, by the way, continue to have!)."

- Peter Asher

"Waddy and I sometimes, I think we're the same person, except from California and New York, because we are like two sides of a coin and that's why we have been working together for so long I think. Because I would never want anybody else to be my musical director, or my lead guitarist, because Waddy makes me feel safe and always has in any situation, no matter how frightening the situation, as long as he's standing next to me, I know I'm safe."

- Stevie Nicks

"One of the things about the comradery was the knowledge of what it's like to make music together and to collaborate. on something like that. Like put down a tune and everybody work together as a sort of team or a community on this tune. It's a bond, it's such a special thing to be able to do. "The creative input of these session guys cannot be overstated. It can't be overstated. I mean it just can't be overstated."

- James Taylor

"Well, I have over a hundred gold and platinum records, and they probably played on 95% of them. Just to give you a number."

- Val Garay (Producer, Engineer)

"Seeing those names on other recordings and thinking that, 'Wow, these are the guys!' And in a way these new independent players that were brought in by new artists like Carole King in those days, in a way the baton was handed to them and they became the new Wrecking Crew."

- Lyle Lovett

'A', those cats are fucking good, and "B", they're talking to each other." There was chemistry. And it was there. There's two universal languages that nobody needs to be taught and everybody gets them, music and math. It was unmistakable and it was one of the things that made everybody fall in love with those guys and that was they had respect for each other and, along with the talent, they had a gift for communicating with each other."

- David Crosby
